Selected writings will be published along with relevant images. A short bio and contact info will be included on the contributor's pages. Descriptions of work and CV are only for reference purposes and will not be published. Additional issues will be released twice a year. Each contributor will receive a few free copies of the publication and the remaining copies will be distributed at the release event free of charge and available for purchase at art centers across the US and through www.dailyconstitutional.org

**We do NOT review or print portfolios. Submissions sent without some sort of written component will not be reviewed. Written component can be interpreted loosely and may include text based work, proposals for works/projects that are possible within a magazine format, Manifestoes, Classified Ads, Letters to the Editor, Comics, Jokes, Food, Rants, Raves and Gobbledygook. Artists are creative people, use your imagination, and we strongly suggest reading previous issues before submitting. The entire first issue is available online for your convenience at www.dailyconstitutional.org/Issue1.html
